Cydwybod - Yr Ymgyrch Treth Heddwch

Mae Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru

yn nodi "It is highly likely that the armed forces will, in future, be more frequently employed on more peace support and counter terrorism operations where the focus will be on conflict prevention and stabilisation, rather than the defeat of opposing forces" (Papur Gwyn y Weinyddiaeth Amddiffyn 2001).

yn annog bod mwy o arian trethdalwyr yn cael ei wario ar atal gwrthdaro, gan gynnwys ailhyfforddi'r lluoedd arfog, a bod y gwariant presennol o 2.3% o gyllideb y Weinyddiaeth Amddiffyn yn cael ei gynyddu'n sylweddol i sicrhau "Improved effectiveness of the UK contribution to conflict prevention" (Cytundeb Gwasanaeth Cyhoeddus ar y Cyd rhwng y Weinyddiaeth Amddiffyn/Yr Adran dros Ddatblygu Rhyngwladol/Y Swyddfa Dramor a Chymanwlad)

Conscience – The Peace Tax Campaign

The National Assembly of Wales

notes that "It is highly likely that the armed forces will, in future, be more frequently employed on more peace support and counter terrorism operations where the focus will be on conflict prevention and stabilisation, rather than the defeat of opposing forces" (MoD White paper 2001).

urges increased spending of taxpayers' money on conflict prevention, including re-training military personnel, to be significantly increased from 2.3% of the MoD budget in order to achieve "Improved effectiveness of the UK contribution to conflict prevention" (Joint MoD/DfID/FCO Public Service Agreement)
